Garrison Keillor : A Prairie Home Companion 10th Anniversary before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Prairie Home Companion 10th Anniversary:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Although I liked the music By John Again with the music and not enough of the skits. Although I liked the music, I would have liked some of the skits from the years. 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Good Clean Humor and Music By Half of Twosome Go back to the good old days when humor was kept out of the gutters. I've listened to most of the Prairie Home Companion series and never tire of listening to them. Also the video. 4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Always a pleasure By Priscilla C. Russell I have loved this series for years and they still amuse and entertain me. There is even a lesson in there hidden in the humor.

This tenth anniversary show-recorded July sixth-seventh, 1984-is considered a must-have by long time fans of A Prairie Home Companion. Guests include Greg Brown; the Butch Thompson Trio; the Dale Warland Singers; Lieberman, Fogel and Bey; Sue Shepard; Stoney Lonesome; and Vern Sutton.

About the Author As the host of A Prairie Home Companion for over forty years, Garrison Keillor has captivated millions of listeners with his News from Lake Wobegon monologues. He has been honored with Grammy, ACE, and George Foster Peabody awards, the National Humanities Medal, and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.From AudioFileKeillor visits his "hometown" of Lake Wobegon, where "the women are strong, the men are good-looking, and all the children are above average." He mixes homespun philosophy with humorous bits such as "Shows That Are No Longer With Us"--like "Lutheran Whispers," the side-splitting "Parade of Products "(Mr. Pickle, Bertha's Kitty Boutique), and the bouncy, toe-tapping sounds of the Night o' Rest Motel Chorus and Orchestra playing such "classics" as "Don't Pass Your Kisses Around." It's all perfectly paced, impeccably put together, and as cozy, warm, and comfortable as an old pair of slippers. A true collector's item. M.T.B.
