If you like the show, you'll probably enjoy the CD By Jeepers If you loved listening to the different musical talents that played on the weekly Prairie Home Companion show then you will enjoy this CD. I always like the variety of the musically talents, some are a little folksy and some are a bit religious but honestly it's all good sounding music. I also think it's the sentimental aspect that made me order it. I listen in the car while driving to work and it helps the drive to be less stressful and I reminisce about enjoying the original show on Saturday nights on NPR. Its actually the only reason I listened to NPR as a friend told me about Garrison Keillor stories and I got hooked. It's a nice CD and I have enjoyed it so much that I'm probably going to get the Duets II.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By IU Leatherneck Received as advertised 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great music! By R. P. G. If you like GK and his guests, this CD is for you. Not all include him but all are good listening. You'll listen to it more than once. Well worth 5 stars. (Can't get them to show on this app!)

Great music is a hallmark of A Prairie Home Companion, and some of the best features pairs of guests harmonizing. This new collection brings together 14 of the best vocal and instrumental duets featured on A Prairie Home Companion, performed by a range of artists, including The Everly Brothers, Robin and Linda Williams, Leo Kottke and Iris DeMent, Gillian Welch and David Rawlings, Emmylou Harris and Mark Knopfler, Chet Atkins and Jethro Burns, and Garrison Keillor and Meryl Streep.
