He brings his "Prairie Home Companion" style to broadcast a live show from Mark Twain's home in Hartford Connecticut. For people familiar with his "Prairie Home Companion" show this show will be familiar except that this time it has a singular subject, Mark Twain. Keillor's love and admiration for Twain shows through as he takes you from room to room with descriptions, stories, and musical performances. I will admit my bias in that I am a fan of the "Prairie Home Companion" shows, but people who are familiar with Twain's work and people who are not so familiar alike will learn details about Twain listening to this engaging show. The live radio format lends itself to Twain as it is spontaneous much like Twain himself. If you are planning to visit the Mark Twain House, this program will greatly enhance your experience. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Love to Laugh? By M. Norman My husband loves all things Garrison!! I bought him this CD to enjoy while riding the stationary bike. He has many CD's by him and while he loves them all, never have I heard him laugh as he did while listening to this one. Laughter is good medicine!! Definitely for anyone who enjoys Garrison and likes Mark Twain, as it is recorded from his house. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Meeting Mark Twain By Norman Doug Lashley As fans of Garrison Keillor - he never disappoints. A Visit to Mark Twain's House again showed the quality of entertainment and humor found in all his productions! And it was very nice to get to know Mark Twain.

This classic performance of Garrison Keillor's American Radio Company was broadcast live from the Mark Twain Memorial in Hartford Connecticut. The Hartford house is where Twain wrote many of his works. The show pays homage to Twain's genius and personality with humor, period music, and a classic Keillor monologue. Guests included Roy Blount, Jr., the Gregg Smith Quartet, and singer Pamela Warrick-Smith.

About the Author GARRISON KEILLOR is America's favorite storyteller. For more than 35 years, as the host of A Prairie Home Companion, he has captivated millions of listeners with his weekly News from Lake Wobegon monologues. A Prairie Home Companion is heard on hundreds of public radio stations, as well as America One, the Armed Forces Networks, Sirius Satellite Radio, and via a live audio webcast. Keillor is also the author of several books and a frequent contributor to national publications including Time, The New Yorker, and National Geographic, in addition to writing his own syndicated column. He has been awarded a National Humanities Medal from the National Endowment of the Humanities. When not touring, he resides in St. Paul, Minnesota.
