Welcome to Las Vegas the city of lights, the land of dreams, the entertainment capital of the world, the place where time stands still. It's the last true frontier town in the Old West, only you're not drawing against the fastest gun in the territory.

From the Author When I was the official Gaming Instructor at Caesars Palace, I got a lot of questions from tourists and novice gamblers. Some of my favorites: "Do these stairs go up?" "What time is the midnight buffet?" And... "Is it okay to gamble if you don't know what you're doing?" That's when I decided to put them all into a book, and I guarantee you'll laugh out loud when you read "Ask Barney," About the Author Barney Vinson's rap sheet includes dealer, instructor, and exec in some of Las Vegas' top casinos, guest slots in national media, and consultant to network TV shows - who has authored lots of great books about Vegas, his newest being "The Games We Play" - the book that explains the ins and outs of almost every game of chance in the world. Barney is blessed with a unique knack for delivering solid information while at the same time making us smile, giggle, or just plain laugh out loud. He's also written a couple of Vegas-based novels.
