original radio broadcasts : Baby Snooks: Why Daddy? (Old Time Radio) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Baby Snooks: Why Daddy? (Old Time Radio):

Fanny Brice described Snooks as my kind of youngster, the type I like. She has imagination. She's eager. She's alive. With all her devilry, she still is a good kid, never vicious nor mean. Perhaps, but Daddy and Robespierre may beg to differ. Neither Daddy's time, pet projects, nor peace of mind are safe from Snooks' reliably relentless intrusions. As for how she treats her younger siblings and what she thinks of themwell, the fact that she tries to trade them for cats pretty much says it all! And, corporal punishment doesn't seem to have much effect on this cheeky child. These 28 elfish vignettes are digitally restored and remastered, and are accompanied by a Program Guide written by Ivan G. Shreve, Jr. featuring photographs and information about this playful program. Starring Fanny Brice and Hanley Stafford as Baby Snooks and Daddy.
