Paul Mason MS : The Fact or Fiction Behind Urban Myths (Fact or Phony?) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Fact or Fiction Behind Urban Myths (Fact or Phony?):

There are urban myths about all kinds of different things, but how many of these myths are actually true? This book takes a look at many different myths, exploring their origins and assigning a fact or phony label to each after careful evaluation. Fun fact boxes and amusing cartoons and illustrations help explore common beliefs: can people get sucked out of an airplane bathroom toilet? Do human fingernails keep growing after a person dies? The only way to find the truth is to keep turning the page!

About the Author Paul Mason's interest in writing stems from his childhood when he won the Scripture Prize in his last year at Primary School. He now is an experienced freelance writer and editor of a variety of children's information books, with subjects including extreme sports, geography and travel. He has a degree in anthropology, has worked in Turkey and taught English as a foreign language. Paul is a keen sportsman and particularly enjoys surfing, mountain biking and snowboarding.
