From Carrie to Needful Things By Vinnie Rattolle In the days before the internet, movie geeks got their fix from books like this, one of numerous books to chronicle each of the film/TV works of Stephen King. Each of his films has a 2-4 page writeup with a summary, review, poster art (including many lesser-seen British quad posters), a few color photos, little blurbs about the making-of, and Stephen King's personal reaction to many of the films. Unfortunately, Lloyd didn't personally conduct any interviews, so the book pales a bit when compared to Stephen King at the Movies (similar content with personal research and splashy photo layouts) and Creepshows: The Illustrated Stephen King Movie Guide, which was published a decade later. Not a bad little book, but not one to go out of your way to obtain. Here's the full list of programs covered: Carrie The Shining Creepshow Cujo The Dead Zone Christine Children of the Corn Firestarter Cat's Eye Silver Bullet Maximum Overdrive Stand By Me Creepshow 2 The Running Man Pet Sematary Tales from the Darkside Graveyard Shift Misery Sleepwalkers The Dark Half Needful Things Salem's Lot It Sometimes They Come Back The Golden Years The Tommyknockers (pre-release, a photo but not much info) 1 of 5 people found the following review helpful.
