Mr Brian Edward Hurst : The High Hearty Affair - Screenplay before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The High Hearty Affair - Screenplay:

RICHARD BUCHANAN, an adopted boy in 1950's England, seeks to understand his origins and why he is tormented by nightmares in his new residence at High Hearty. What connection is there between former residents of the house and Richard's strange feelings of déjà vu? How can Richard help his girl friend Debbie escape from an abusive home and how can he also deal with a verbally abusive mother? Complications occur when strange events at the house suggest the intervention of spirit entities. Richard's sister Barbara is in deep mourning for her fiancé who died in a tragic accident. Did the dead boy seek to communicate with the family and was Richard unwittingly used as a medium? This dramatic screenplay deals with universal themes of loss, remorse and the overcoming of adversity through patience, kindness and the right decisions.
