From Brand: Hitchcock Annual : The Hitchcock Annual Anthology: Selected Essays from Volumes 1015 (Film Studies) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Hitchcock Annual Anthology: Selected Essays from Volumes 1015 (Film Studies):

For more than fifteen years the Hitchcock Annual has offered groundbreaking and authoritative scholarship on Hitchcock, becoming the journal of record for Hitchcock studies. Wallflower Press is proud to announce a new partnership with this prestigious publication, resulting in The Hitchcock Annual Anthology, which features contributions from such leading critics as Charles Barr, Thomas Elsaesser, Bill Krohn, Mark Rappaport, Michael Walker, Robin Wood, and Slavoj Žižek. The anthology includes essays on Hitchcock's entire oeuvre, from his early silents to his late American masterpieces, and overviews of Hitchcock criticism, as well as interviews with and discussions between Hitchcock's collaborators.

About the Author Richard Allen is professor and chair of cinema studies at New York University. He is the author of Hitchcock's Romantic Irony (2007) and co-editor of Alfred Hitchcock: Centenary Essays (1999) and Hitchcock: Past and Future (2003). Sidney Gottlieb is professor of media studies and digital culture at Sacred Heart University. He is the editor of Hitchcock on Hitchcock: Selected Writings and Interviews (1997) and Alfred Hitchcock: Interviews (2003), and co-editor of Framing Hitchcock (2002).
