Stop fighting--start laughing By Customer Fun way to start sort out the "me and thee" issues for new couples

Everyone knows someone who argues about chores or the correct way to stack the dishwasher. And everyone has their pet peeves they wish the rest of their household would just stop. With fill-in charts on the full gamut of household matters, this book can serve as the house bible for maintaining the peace and making everyone's life better. Living together isn't easy, but this book lets you have a laugh about the trials and tribulations. We take no responsibility for any disputes or arguments that might arise from using it.
