Blast from the past 2By BrianPublished in 1980, the Book of Lists 2 was a follow up to the Book of Lists and was (and still is) a major source of my trivial information. I have amazed friends and loved ones with information such as the 7 best Presidents in US History by such an authority as Lillian Carter. Lillian was Jimmy's mom and Jimmy was #6 ahead of George Washington. Other lists were 7 people who died laughing, 8 best documented cases of UFO's, 12 notable events that happened under the influence of alcohol and the 10 most defeated nations in history. I found these books in high school and was pleasantly surprised to see that they were offered cheaply for sale. Granted, a lot of this is ancient, but it is fun to amuse at parties.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Blast from the past!By BrianWhen I was in high school in the 80's, we were granted access to the library at lunch time. Being a geek and despising their lunches, I'd go to the library and look for books that interested me. One of these was the Book Of Lists. Inside was a treasure-trove of information in list form on such random things as Nixon's enemies list from 1972, the 10 worst generals in history, Major corporations that paid no income tax and my favorite back then, a list of famous people who died during sex. This book is nearly 500 pages of fun, useless trivia. It was published in 1977, so a lot of it was old then. I was glad I found it though, because I enjoy referring back.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Refefence SeriesBy A. R.
