David A. Smith : The Price of Valor: The Life of Audie Murphy, America's Most Decorated Hero of World War II before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Price of Valor: The Life of Audie Murphy, America's Most Decorated Hero of World War II:

When he was seventeen years old, Audie Murphy falsified his birth records so he could enlist in the Army and help defeat the Nazis. When he was nineteen, he single-handedly turned back the German Army at the Battle of Colmar Pocket by climbing on top of a tank with a machine gun, a moment immortalized in the classic film To Hell and Back, starring Audie himself. In the first biography covering his entire life including his severe PTSD and his tragic death at age 45 the unusual story of Audie Murphy, the most decorated hero of WWII, is brought to life for a new generation.
