[Evanovich] is funny and ceaselessly inventive. "Los Angeles Times Book Review Do yourself a favor and read this one. Washington Post The author of so many spectacularly successful mystery novels featuring the inimitable Stephanie Plum, #1 New York Times bestselling author Janet Evanovich displays a more playfully romantic side with The Rocky Road to Romance. Evanovich delights with a classic, pre-Plum contemporary romance novel that's sure to please a lighthearted tale of three-way love affair involving a radio dog lady-turned-traffic reporter, her handsome program director, and a huge couch potato canine named Bob.

From the Back Cover When the delightful, daffy Dog Lady of station WZZZ offered to take on the temporary job of traffic reporter, Steve Crow tried to think of reasons to turn Daisy Adams down. Perhaps he knew that sharing the close quarters of a car with her for hours would give the handsome program director no room to resist her quirky charms. Hed always favored low-slung sports cars and high-heeled women, but that was before he fell for a free spirit who caught crooks by accident, loved old people and pets, and had just too many jobs! Loving Daisy turned Steves life upside down, especially once he adopted Bob, a couch potato masquerading as a huge dog. But was Daisy finally ready to play for keeps? Performed by C. J. Critt About the Author Bestselling author Janet Evanovich is the winner of the New Jersey Romance Writers Golden Leaf Award and multiple Romantic Times awards, including Lifetime Achievement. She is also a long-standing member of RWA. C.J. Critt is a much-admired audiobook performer who has appeared on and Off-Broadway, in stand-up comedy, solo performance, and poetry slams. She is a Cable Ace winner and staff writer for Radio Disney. From AudioFile This novel is like a Stephanie Plum novel in boudoir-pink syrup. The lovable goofball here is Daisy Adams, a girl with so many jobs that she doesn't have time to have her handsome, rich, and otherwise perfect boss, Steve Cross, fall in love with her. The eccentric sidekick is Daisy's gun-toting octogenarian bodyguard. (Daisy keeps accidentally catching crooks who vow revenge.) The suspense is whether she'll slow down enough to let Mr. Perfect marry her. It's all PG-13, with some sex, nudity, and madcap violence but no bad language. C.J. Critt is suitably merry in portraying this gallery of kooks. The overall effect: Bridget Jones meets Laurel and Hardy and takes her clothes off. B.G.
