Robert Arthur, David Kogen : The Sealed Book: Radio Thrillers before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Sealed Book: Radio Thrillers:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Really like Old time Radio and listen to it alot By Daniel, K.Carter Tuffy Really like Old time Radio and listen to it alot. This was a very good series and would like to have more off them. Somewhat like the mysterious traveler and suspencc.

6 hours/6 cassettes - original unabridged broadcasts...First: the ringing sound of the gong. Then the sharp squeal of ancient hinges. Finally a deep masculine voice: "Once again the keeper of the book has opened the ponderous door to the secret vault wherein is kept the great Sealed Book in which is recorded all the secrets and mysteries of mankind through the ages. Here are tales of murder... of madness... of dark deeds strange and terrible beyond all belief." So began this mystery marvel which filled the tough position as New York Station WOR's summer replacement for The Shadow. Written by the famous team of Robert Arthur and David Kogen, these summer sizzlers became popular enough to bring the show into national syndication. Death at Storm House, Welcome Home, Design for Death, Death Brings Down the Curtain, My Beloved Must Die, Beware of Tomorrow, Murder Must Be Paid For, To Have and to Hold, Murder Unknown, Time on My Hands, Death Laughs Last, You Only Die Once.
