Original Radio Broadcasts : The Shadow: Bitter Fruit (Old Time Radio) (Classic Radio Suspense) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Shadow: Bitter Fruit (Old Time Radio) (Classic Radio Suspense):

radio program. I am not sure how Radio Spirits continues to find names like "Bitter Fruit" when that subtitle has nothing to do with the selection of stories. Mad Scientists? Check. Werewolf? Check. Gangsters? Check. Best part of the box set is the liner notes written by Martin Grams. Grams wrote the definitive book on The Shadow radio program (also available through , I bought my copy from) and his liner notes explore more about the show than what can be found in his 800 page book. Made me chose which radio broadcasts to listen to first rather than start with disc one and listen to them progressively. In fact, Elizabeth McLeod and Martin Grams provide the best liner notes for the Radio Spirits box sets. All others are mild by comparison. My decision making as to what to buy from Radio Spirits is based not just on the names of the radio programs but whether McLeod or Grams wrote the notes. I know this is petty but it's my wallet is asking for. Sound quality is top notch and better than the mp3 sources found on the internet. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The weed of crime bears bitter fruit...and if criminals cultivate the crops, it is The Shadow will do the reaping! Hear The Shadow fight crime, as he becomes both the stalker and the stalked, in an assortment of tales featuring some of his most exciting encounters with some of the series most sinister scoundrels. Whether matching wits against a spy, a madman, a monster or a psychotic killer, he forces his foes to face the stark realization that crime does not pay! This collection includes the previously lost episode The Mine Hunters , starring Orson Welles, which is available here for the first time since its original broadcast - plus three newly sourced recordings of episodes from the 1938 BF Goodrich sponsored season, and a Program Guide by radio historian Martin Grams, Jr. The 18 digitally restored and remastered episodes featured here star Orson Welles , Bill Johnstone , and Brett Morrison as The Shadow, with and Agnes Moorhead, Margot Stevenson, Marjorie Anderson, Lesley Wood s and Grace Matthews as Margot Lane. Episodes include: Temple Bells of Neban 10-24-37; Circle of Death 11-28-37; The Death Triangle 12-12-37; Sabotage 01-16-38; Society of the Living Dead 01-23-38; Poison Death 01-30-38; Death from the Deep 04-03-38; The Mine Hunters 08-07-38; Cavern of Death 08-21-38; Death Stalks The Shadow 10-09-38; Murder in Death House 01-07-40; Curse of Shiva 12-01-40; Death Prowls at Night 03-23-41; Death on the Rails 04-13-41; The Gibbering Things 09-26-43; The Walking Corpse 03-24-46; The Shadow's Revenge 05-11-47; Nursery Rhyme Murders 02-22-48
