Metro Goldwyn Mayer began churning out the wildly popular "Dr. Kildare" film series from 1938 to 1947. In the summer of 1949, MGM brought Dr. Kildare to radio reuniting Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore to record the radio series. The Story of Dr. Kildare was scripted by Les Crutchfield, Jean Holloway and others. The series was syndicated to radio stations during the 1950s. The supporting cast included Ted Osborne as hospital administrator Dr. Carough, Jane Webb as nurse Mary Lamont and Virginia Gregg as Nurse Parker, labeled "Nosy Parker" by Gillespie, with appearances by William Conrad, Stacy Harris, Jay Novello, Isabel Jewell and Jack Webb. 28 half-hour original broadcasts, digitally remastered and restored.
