We both really enjoyed the stories. What made it more vivid, was the sound of footsteps for example or the clock ticking a doors closing. I would recommend this for any age.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not the same as the TV episodes.By ZostarAlthough I am familiar with each of the TZ episodes, and the audio versions are not exactly the same as the TV productions, they are just as enjoyable and the more complex dialogue is a bonus.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. step back in time to revisit the chills you experienced watching the original versionsBy Blaine GreenfieldEnjoyed Collection 1 of THE TWILIGHT ZONE RADIO DRAMAS,hosted by Stacy Keach . . . it contained four stories that were performed by such actors as Jim Caviezel, Jane Seymour,James Keach, Lou Diamond Phillips and Tim Kazurinsky.If you were a fan of the TV show, THE TWILIGHT ZONE, you'llwant to listen to this program . . . doing so will enable you to step back in time to revisit the chills you experiencedwhen you watched Rod Sterling hosting the original version.You'll also receive an introduction to what it was like listening to the radio for your entertainment . . . folks actually did that at one time . . . or so I've been told.Though some of the stories were better than others, none left me disappointed . . . they left me seeking Collection2 of these dramas.
