Rod Serling : The Twilight Zone Radio Dramas Volume 11 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Twilight Zone Radio Dramas Volume 11:

0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Every edition is GREAT!By Elzera FlynnI Love these stories. I worried about Stacey Keach doing the narration. But he does a FINE job. WELL DONE!

From AudioFileStacy Keach, in the Rod Serling role, effectively introduces these 10 Twilight Zone episodes, adapted for radio by horror pro Dennis Etchison. The technical quality is high; music, taken from the original show, is atmospheric, and sound effects are used sparingly but well. The acting quality varies; its always professional, no actors are bad, but some are more convincing than others. Unfortunately, some of the stories are only partially updated and retain the feel of the 50s and 60s. And some of surprise effects meant for a visual medium dont come off aurally. For instance, in the classic Nightmare at 20,000 Feet, listeners cant see the human figure on the wing of the airplane. But, overall, this is an entertaining program, and fans will appreciate it.
