Sawyer I have seen a couple very negative reviews, but I am a big trivia buff, own many versions of the game, and the book is a great way to kill some time. It Stays in my car for traffic jams and road trips. Easier then finding trivia on the phone. And so far it hasn't dissatisfied. My only issue. Very minor. No external way to see where the different subjects are. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. a great idea and super fun to play! By L. Vasquez My family has been dragging the box of cards around camping and on car trips to quiz each other and play without the actual board, just as a way of competing with each other and proving what each of us really knows.... this is much more convenient! All the categories of the regular game are there, it's well organized so the person doing the reading can be mixing up the topics and still not lose where they are in the book. And because the questions are on one side of the page and answers are on the other the reader can be playing right along with the rest of the group! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Very Entertaining By Terry's Gal Fun idea! good to take on trips...exactly as described.

Trivia junkies everywhere will be clamoring for this! It's simply one of the largest collections of TRIVIAL PURSUIT questions ever compiled, and a test for even the toughest competitor. Almost every conceivable subject is covered: art, entertainment, history, geography, science, sports, and more. There's enough entertainment here for months on end.
