Greensleeves seems especially notorious - "What Child Is This" from the regular Charlie Brown Christmas Sheet Music sounds much, much better. Agree with the other reviewers that the errors are easy enough to spot (it won't sound right to the ear and/or compared to the original recording) but it's annoying. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Challenge for intermediate playerBy MarkoThis is too challenging for my wife at present. She's coming back to regular playing after 30+years. She'll get there... 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very happy with this musicBy Rachel S.Very happy with this music. But I agree with someone else who did mention that this piano music is meant to be played with a trio, or other group and you can tell in some parts where it is empty. But it is still fun and a decent challenge to learn, and hey, if you have a couple of other musician friends, you can definitely fill it out.

(Artist Transcriptions). Along with Dave Brubeck, Vince Guaraldi was one of the leading pianists to rise to prominence from the California Bay Area scene. Originally a Latin jazz musician, his recording of "Cast Your Fate to the Wind" is one of the best-selling jazz records of all time. Guaraldi later composed the beloved and timeless music for the Peanuts television specials. This folio spans Guaraldi's multi-faceted career, with note-for-note transcriptions of 9 terrific songs: Cast Your Fate to the Wind * Christmas Time Is Here * Greensleeves * Linus and Lucy * Manha De Carnaval * O Tannenbaum * Outra Vez * Samba De Orfeu * Star Song. Includes a biography and a discography.
