my family knew about six more. The author is great. By Ernest Kimbrough It is a wonderful book about how money is never a permanent solution to person's live. I learned growing up in West Texas that " 'it ain't the money you go'. The greatest asset you can have are your friends and family." 3 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Fun Book By Stephen Fishman An enjoyable, breezy look at the famous people in history who went broke. There are quite a few of them, and some will surprise you.

Filled with the inside information about some of the famous people who filed for bankruptcy, and why: John Wayne, William Penn, Daniel Boone, Judy Garland, Jeffrey Archer, Larry King, Stephen Crane, Oscar Wilde, and many others.
